

Michelle Allison, APEB

Vice President, Employee Health & Benefits
Marsh McLennan Agency
Houston, Texas

Michelle Allison is a seasoned professional with over 25 years of experience in the insurance and employee benefits industry, with a specialized focus on the construction sector for more than a decade.

Currently serving at Marsh McLennan Agency (MMA) for the past six years, Michelle brings a wealth of knowledge and expertise shaped by her prior roles with various firms and carriers. Her passion lies in empowering employees to fully understand their benefits and become proactive advocates for their health insurance needs. Michelle is dedicated to ensuring that individuals are well-informed and confident in navigating their benefits, reflecting her commitment to meaningful client service and education. Michelle holds a bachelor's degree from North Carolina State University and is an Accredited Professional in Employee Benefits (APEB), underscoring her professional credentials and commitment to excellence in her field. Beyond her professional pursuits, Michelle is an active member of construction trade associations in Houston, Texas, where she contributes to industry advancement and networking. She also dedicates time to volunteer work at her church and local animal rescues, reflecting her strong community spirit. In her personal life, Michelle enjoys riding horses, training dogs, and cherishing moments with her family. She is a proud mother of a son who is a Junior at Texas A&M University and a daughter who recently embarked on a career in the Air Force after high school. Michelle's blend of professional expertise, community involvement, and personal passions makes her a valued leader and advocate in the employee benefits landscape.