

Kristin A. David, Psy.D.

Executive Director
The Foundation For Integrated Care
Warwick, Rhode Island

Dr. Kristin A. David holds a doctorate and a master of science degree in clinical psychology from Nova Southeastern University. She completed her postdoctoral fellowship at Brown Medical School. She is certified as a practice facilitator in integrated behavioral health training and holds a primary care behavioral health certificate. As the executive director of the Foundation for Integrated Care in Warwick, Rhode Island, Dr. David leads strategic planning and operational management of an ambulatory integrated behavioral health (IBH) clinic, enhancing patient access and collaborating with medical professionals. Dr. David is a practice facilitator/content expert at the Care Transformation Collaborative of Rhode Island, supporting integrated care models and best practices in team-based care. She also served as an integrated behavioral health clinician at Associates in Primary Care Medicine and as clinical director at the Center for Change, addressing mental health disorders with evidence-based strategies. Dr. David has taught at Rhode Island College School of Social Work, Integrative Psychological Services, and Central Carolina Community College. She has also been a teaching assistant at Nova Southeastern University. Dr. David co-presented "A Successful Blueprint for Integrating Behavioral Health into Primary Care" at the 2018 PCMH Congress and co-authored a chapter in the Handbook of Sexuality-Related Measures.