

Michelle Kennedy

Benefits Coordinator

NYSUT

Tarrytown, New York

Michelle Kennedy joined NYSUT as a coordinator for member benefits in September 2014. Her territory expands from the Tarrytown, Nassau, and Suffolk NYSUT regional offices to the UFT and PSC-CUNY Welfare Funds. As a coordinator, she communicates the benefits endorsed by NYSUT Member Benefits with locals and their in-service and retiree members. Prior to NYSUT, Michelle spent ten years as a fundraiser specializing in alumni relations and major gift giving. During that time, she worked for higher education and marketing nonprofits. Michelle earned a B.A. degree in communications from Fordham University, where she was a four-year swimmer and was inducted into the school's Athletics Hall of Fame. She also received an M.S. degree in fundraising management from Columbia University.
