

Matthew L. McMenemy, M.B.A.

Director, Institutional Client Group
Vontobel Asset Management
Milton, Massachusetts

Matthew L. McMenemy joined Vontobel Asset Management in November 2020 as a relationship manager working with corporate and public pension plans, union/Taft-Hartleys, endowments, foundations and sub-advisory clients to help create investment solutions. He is responsible for developing and servicing institutional clients in the Northeast region of the U.S. Prior to joining Vontobel, McMenemy held a range of responsibilities at Wellington Management Company, including institutional business development in the Americas, portfolio advisor for U.S. intermediary clients and account management. He has also served as an independent financial planner and as an external wholesaler at the Harford/PLANCO Financial Services. Prior to working in the investment management business, he served as an officer in the United States Navy. McMenemy received a master of business administration degree from the Carroll School of Management at Boston College and a bachelor of arts degree in history from Villanova University in Pennsylvania. In addition, he holds Series 7 and 63 Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA) licenses.