

Tejash (TJ) Modi

Partner and Practice Leader
TELUS Health
Toronto, Ontario

TJ is a Partner in TELUS Health's Consulting business and the Practice Leader for the company's Regulatory, Governance and Legal and International Consulting Practices. He is a licensed and practicing lawyer; he was admitted to the Ontario Bar in Canada in 2001. TJ has been with the company for over 20 years, and prior to that, worked for four years as an associate lawyer at an international human resources consulting firm, and 1.5 years as an associate lawyer with a litigation firm. He graduated with a Juris Doctor from Osgoode Hall Law School and a Master of Business Administration from the Schulich School of Business in 1999. TJ is responsible for advising the firm's professionals and clients, both national and international, on pension and benefits plans, including design and documentation, regulatory compliance, wind ups, governance, mergers and acquisitions and related due diligence, surplus withdrawals and taxation. He also has extensive leadership experience in the area of insolvency related wind ups and deferred settlements as well as associated pension litigation. TJ is a well-recognized expert in pension governance. He is a faculty member for the Osgoode Hall Law School Certificate in Pension Law teaching on governance and risk management. He is a regular speaker and presenter at professional workshops, industry and regulatory conferences internationally. TJ is a contributing author to the Handbook of Canadian Pension and Benefit Plans; he has specifically contributed to the chapters on pension and benefit plan governance, multi-employer pension plans and plan wind ups. TJ is a member of the Financial Services Regulatory Authority (Ontario) Standing Technical Advisory Committee for DB Single Employer Pension Plans.