

Dylan Rae, CFA

Institutional Portfolio Manager
Phillips, Hager & North Investment Management
Toronto, Ontario

Dylan Rae is an institutional portfolio manager at Phillips, Hager & North (PH&N) Investment Management, specializing in multi-asset mandates with a particular focus in emerging markets equities. He works on all aspects of portfolio management, investment solution development and client servicing on behalf of institutional clients, consultants and family offices. In addition to serving as the emerging markets equity capability specialist on the team, Dylan also provides his expertise in the areas of outsourced chief investment officer (OCIO) mandates, trading and operations. Prior to joining PH&N Institutional in 2012, he served as a spokesperson for the Ontario Securities Commission, where he provided strategic communications counsel during a number of significant market events. Dylan earned a bachelor of arts degree (with honours) in history and political science from the University of Toronto and is a CFA charterholder.