

Jennifer J. Ramos, MSW, LCSW

Staff Health and Wellness Clinician
Phoenix Union High School District
Phoenix, Arizona

Jennifer J. Ramos graduated from Adelphi University with honors in 2018, obtaining a master's degree in social work. In addition to her full-time employment with Phoenix Union High School District, Mrs. Ramos serves as an adjunct professor at Grand Canyon University, a mentor to new social workers, a field liaison for social work students, and a volunteer. As a clinical social worker, Mrs. Ramos is passionate about ensuring ethical, diverse, and inclusive practices in all interactions. Mrs. Ramos seeks to enhance her expertise and continually develop her clinical skills in the service of others. Mrs. Ramos' professional experiences began in New York but have continued to develop since her move to Arizona in March 2021.