

Simon J. Torres, Esq.

Of Counsel
Littler Mendelson, P.C.
Washington, DC

Simon is an ERISA litigator and counselor whose experience includes representing defined contribution plan fiduciaries in class-actions or putative class-actions alleging breach of fiduciary duty and prohibited transactions in connection with plan investment options or investment, recordkeeping, or administrative fees and costs. He has also litigated other fiduciary breach, pension benefit, retiree health/medical benefit, and section 510 claims. His counseling experience includes pension and welfare plan administration and fiduciary matters, QDROs, COBRA, and subrogation issues. Before joining Littler, Simon served as an attorney and assistant general counsel at the federal Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation, where he represented the agency in federal courts and counseled on the agency's statutory functions and responsibilities under Title IV of ERISA. Simon is a frequent presenter on legal ethics for employee benefits attorneys and professionals for the International Foundation of Employee Benefit Plans, the American Bar Association, and Practising Law Institute, and he is a former government/neutral co-chair of the ABA's Employee Benefits Committee.
