

Taylor Valée, CEBS

Director, Enterprise Group Solutions
People Corporation
Toronto, Ontario

Taylor Valée is Director, Enterprise Group Solutions at People Corporation. She is a seasoned senior benefits consultant and forward-thinking leader of a team of dedicated benefit professionals specializing in large market advisory services. With a profound expertise in the strategic management and implementation of group benefit programs, Taylor excels at crafting comprehensive, long-term strategies that seamlessly encompass all aspects of employee well-being. Recognized as a true visionary, Taylor is unwaveringly committed to propelling businesses forward by introducing innovative solutions, ensuring cost sustainability, delivering purposeful and tailored employee communications, and providing value-added services that redefine the employee value proposition. Leveraging her profound industry acumen, she designs valuable benefits programs that align with organizations' overarching objectives of attracting, retaining, and rewarding top-tier talent. Taylor applies rigorous and methodical analysis to provide her clients with a fresh and insightful perspective on strategic plan design, enabling them to achieve meaningful, tangible results. She takes pride in fostering transparency within her client relationships and ensuring a clear understanding of their initiatives, objectives, and goals. Her proactive guidance and thought leadership offer HR stakeholders a rejuvenated perspective and a comprehensive grasp of industry trends and the relevant changes shaping the marketplace.