

Renée Wilder Guerin, M.B.A.

Executive Vice President of Public Policy
Retirement Clearinghouse
Washington, D.C.

Renée Wilder Guerin is the executive vice president of public policy at Retirement Clearinghouse (RCH) and a member of the firm's executive leadership team. Prior to joining RCH, Wilder Guerin was the director of the office of enterprise planning for the Federal Retirement Thrift Investment Board, responsible for driving the vision, strategy and execution of the Thrift Savings Plan (TSP), the nation's largest defined contribution plan. Wilder Guerin managed strategic operations and oversaw dozens of service and benefits initiatives from conception to implementation. Prior to joining the Federal Retirement Thrift Investment Board, Wilder Guerin was the executive director and CEO of the National Tax-Deferred Savings Association, an organization focused on §403(b) and §457(b) retirement markets. During her time with Metropolitan Life, Wilder Guerin was an officer in MetLife Resources (MLR), where she was responsible for retirement product development, marketing and communications in the health care, higher education and nonprofit sectors. Before joining MLR, Wilder Guerin worked in MetLife's fixed income investment management subsidiary as a product manager and in the corporate investment department as an investment manager and analyst. Wilder Guerin received her B.A. degree from Duke University and M.B.A. from the Fuqua School of Business at Duke University.